RE: Application for a New Jersey Permit to Carry a Handgun

Dear Mr. Rogers:

This letter is to inform you that your application for a New Jersey permit to carry a handgun has been DENIED by failure to establish Justifiable Need.

You previously met with Chief Robert Brice (retired) for a pre-conference meeting on January 24, 2017.

You have thirty (30) days to appeal the denial by writing to the Superior Court of New Jersey and request a hearing on the denial. At this juncture you will be given the opportunity to articulate your need for a permit to carry a handgun to a Superior Court Judge.

Your letter must be directed to the attention of the Criminal Case Manager at the following address:

Criminal Case Manager
Superior Court of New Jersey
County of Monmouth
71 Monument Park
Freehold, New Jersey 07728

Sincerely,

Chief Kenneth Brown Jr.
